SPIRIT OF THE MORNING PRESS

The Union conceives that Mr Francis Granger's platform, for the reorganization of the Northern (Silver Gray) Whig party, is hardly less anti-national and objectionable than that of Mr. Seward. The editor also calls attention to the fact that no prominent Democrat has any part whatever in the Cincinnati Know Nothing National Convention, while Messrs. Kenneth Rayner. Garret Davis, Ullman, Segar, et al., well known Whig leaders in their respective States, have, apparently, the management of affairs there.

The Intelligencer continues to quote abolition journals. by way of showing the South the views of the Northern Democracy on slavery questions.

"IDA NORMAN, OR TRIALS AND THEIR USES," by Mrs. Lincoln Phelps, Principal of Patapsco Institute, Maryland. Two volumes in one This is an interesting publication, our ex changes speak of it in the most flattering terms. The New York Mirror says: "It is a most absorbing book, and we wish to see it on every parlor table, for the good it cannot fail to do, as well as for the rational entertain ment it will afford." Frank Taylor has the work for sale.

THE NEW YORK ELECTION-LATEST .- By the statement of the Albany Argus, prepared from the returns in the office of Secretary of Segmour is 317, and Raymond's over Ludlow has a majority of 37,222 over his Democratic no change in his condition. competitor, Clark, and Bowne, Whig, is elected State Prison Inspector by a majority of 30,733.

WASHINGTON NEWS AND GOSSIP.

Mr. de Cueto, the Spanish Minister. - We egret exceedingly to learn that the injury ustained on Wednesday last by the Spanish Minister, Don L A. de Cueto, was very serious, producing much solicitude in his behalf among his numerous friends in Washington We take from the Intelligencer the following account of the accident by which he was in ured, (shortly after we went to press on the day before yesterday:)

"An accident occurred, yesterday, which placed in great jeopardy the life of the es eemed Minister from Spain. As Mr. De Cueto was driving a pair of fine and spirited horses attached to a light vehicle, they became un manageable, and dashed with headlong speed down the avenue, from the direction of Thir teenth street. On nearing Eleventh street they encountered a furniture car, which they upset without ceremony, and on recovering from the shock, by which one of Mr. de Cueto's horses was thrown violently to the ground they again rushed forward with fearful velo city. Mr. de Cueto still held on manfully though his servant either fell or jumped from the carriage, without, however, being injured. The horses turned down Tenth street, and near its intersection with Louisiana avenue Mr. de Cueto was thrown violently from the vehicle, which was carried by the terrified animals to the market-house, at which point their course was impeded by a wagon, and they were finally stopped. Mr. de Cueto was injured in the head and neck, but whether dangerously so or not was not ascertained on the spot. He was able to walk to a carriage in which he was conveyed to his residence. It is somewhat singular that the horses were not burt, nor was the carriage broken, with the exception of a swingletree.

During his brief residence in this country Mr. de Cueto has won the esteem of all who have had the pleasure of being associated with him, by his intelligence, accomplish ments, and gentlemanly deportment, and the hearty good will with which he has endeavored to maintain a good understanding be tween his Government and ours, and to supply the place left vacant in social and politica eircles here by the much regretted retirement of the highly estimable Don Angel Calderon de la Barca.

We sincerely trust that Mr. de Cueto may recover from this accident. He is sedulously watched by Mr. Magallon, 1st Secretary of the Spanish Legation, and is attended by Drs. Hall and May. The President of the United States has called in person at Mr. de Cueto's to express his regret and sympathy.

We learn that the injury is judged to be an internal injury in the head. Yesterday, a considerable quantity of blood was taken from State, it appears that Clark's majority over his head with leeches. He had previously bled considerably from the ears. Up to the 28,916. For Canal Commissioner, Fitzhugh hour at which we go to press, there had been

They are Coming. - Members of both Houses of Congress are already dropping in upon us. Yesterday brought to Washington, in addition Rev. Eleazer Williams is before the to those whose arrival had been previously announced, Speaker Boyd, and Senator A. G. Brown of Mississippi, both of whom look and in all things appear to be in fine health and We learn from Genoa that our charge spirits. They are stopping at the Kirkwood crowds, and in their train we shall see the well known faces of the gentlemen of the lobby, whose name is legion. In the course of the next two weeks at least a thousand persons will come among us to remain for the winter; and as all of them will be regular frequenters of the public places in Washington, they will aid greatly in giving our city its usual lively appearance in Winter.

To those of them in want of quarters for the session, we have to say, look to the colamns of the Star, wherein they will find advertised the best locations now to be had in Washington.

Sour Grapes .- It seems, from a recently pubished letter from Mr. John M. Clayton, that that gentleman thinks the reciprocity (Canadian) treaty a great blunder-a convention full of features likely to work injuries to the future of the United States. Now, this is wonderful, in view of the fact that, when himself Secretary of State, he labored hard to obtain the very same treaty from Great Britain. It was a dead failure on his part and he bore his disappointment sorely enough for a time. To those who are aware of the rankling jealousies which long service and struggling in politics and public affairs are so apt to generate, it will not take a econd thought to form the conclusion, that, with Mr. C., the ugly feature in the affair is that a successor in the State Department, rather than himself, was the successful negotiator on the to much speculation. part of this Government.

ROBBERIES BY POST OFF. CLERKS .- Wm. H. Martin, the principal distributing clerk in the Baltimore Post Office, has been arrested for robbing money from the mails. He has been a clerk in the office for many years, having entered it when a boy. His extravagant mode of living has for a long time excited the suspicion of his acquaintances. He was arrested through the vigilance of special agent McGuire.

The New York Evening Post of last evening

"Considerable sums of money have been lost, from time to time, during the last two months, and for some two or three weeks past the suspicions of Mr. Holbrook, the general agent of the office, have rested upon James Fitzgibbons, one of the night clerks, as the probable thief. He has been watched for several nights, and sundry traps have been laid to catch him, but without any further success than a confirmation of their suspicions, until last night, or this morning, rather, at about three o'clock, when he was detected by Mr. Holbrook in the act of appropriating two packages of money, mailed at Newark, N. J. one directed to Bridgeport, Conn, and the other to Williamsburg, L. I., containing between three and four hundred dollars each. Mr. Holbrook did not disclose his observations to the rogue, but kept his eye upon him until he left the office, about five o'clock, to go home. As soon as he left the office and got into Liberty street, in the rear, Mr. Holbrook, in company with Mr. Brown, the head of the night clerks, went out and brought him back, with the money upon his person, to the office, where he remains at the time of our present

Seven crowned heads, before whom Mons. B. has had the honor of appearing, pronounce him the most reffect Giant in Europe; and all the inhabitants of this favored land who have seen him, coincide in the same opinion. He is nearly eight feet in height, weighs nearly 400 pounds, and his strength s commensurate with his enormous siz . He is a highly educated gentleman, speaks seven different languages, and of the most perfect symmetry of

Mons B will appear in the Roman Toga, the costune of the second century, which he wore in the presence of say n of the monarche of Europe the American giant girl, is a native of Ohio, but 19 years of age, measuring 28 inches around the ARM. 113 inches around 'he waist, and will weigh more than any other woman. We challenge the world to produce her -qual, without regard to age. This young lady measures 61/2 inches more around the arm, 14 inches more around the waist, and is TALLER than 'he woman 39 years of age, who is represented o weigh 769 ; ounds! She is very in'e ligent, sociable, of s good form as any women, and very active

The combined exhibition of these very extraordinary persons—the FALLEST MAN and LARGEST WOMAN known is highly interesting to all who delight in seeing the greatest wonders of the world. S. DANSEITH.
